Subject: Allotment/retention of Defence Pool Accommodation to service officers posted on deputation to civil organisations and other non-military organisations of Ministry of Defence.

Sir,

In supersession of all the existing rules/instructions on allotment/retention of Defence Pool accommodation to service officers posted on deputation to civil organisation including SFF, Estt 22, NSG and also to other non-military organisations of the Ministry of Defence such as DRDO, DG QA, Coast Guard etc., I am directed to convey the sanction of the President to regulate the retention/allotment of accommodation as per the following procedure:-

(a) Officers posted on deputation to civil organisations:-

- i) Deputationists who are proceeding to civil organisations on voluntary basis and are in occupation of Defence pool accommodation have to vacate the accommodation within a period of two months when deputed to civil departments and within 10 days when deputed to public undertakings.
- ii) Deputationists who are posted to civil organisations at peace stations such as SFF, Assam Rifles, Coast Guard, Cabinet Secretariat on tenure basis without being given any Option shall be provided hired Defence pool accommodation at the station of their posting in their own turn as if they had been posted to any other station within the Armed Forces. These officers shall have the right to retain the accommodation at the last duty station on the basis of children's education, NAC and other such grounds under the same terms and conditions as are applicable to regular officers. These officers shall also have the right to apply for and occupy regular accommodation from the General pool on civil side at the station of their posting, if they do not wish to avail hired Defence pool accommodation.
- iii) Deputationists who are posted to civil organisation on tenure basis in the same station without being given any option should be shifted to hired accommodation within two months of their transfer in case they are in occupation of regular accommodation/3 roomed hostel accommodation. However, these officers may continue to retain the same accommodation in case they are already in occupation of hired accommodation/two roomed hostel/rent reimbursed accommodation.

(b) (I) Officers posted on deputation to DRDO, DGQA and Coast Guard and other Departments under Ministry of Defence in stations other than Delhi-New Delhi.

- i) Deputationists who are permanently, seconded and posted in station other than Delhi and New Delhi, shall not be allotted regular Defence Pool accommodation built out of Army budget. The Defence Pool regular as well as hired accommodation already in occupation by the present occupants, will be required to be vacated within the stipulated period of two months. Defence Pool hired accommodation already allotted to DRDO and DGQA officers will be transferred to their own pool provided fresh hiring in lieu of such accommodation is possible. Henceforth DRDO and DGQA will hire houses for their own officers or accord sanction for hiring on rent reimbursement basis. Defence Estates Organisation Service and MES should deal directly with R&D and DGQA officers and allotment of funds from R&D and DGQA Budget for payment of rent to the land-lord. "Non-availability of married accommodation certificate in the Station will be issued by the DRDO and DGQA organisations and not by the Station Commander. Station HQrs will, whenever possible, assist these authorities in providing single accommodation to DRDO and DGQA officers from within their existing resources without resorting to fresh hirings.

- ii) Service officers posted on tenure basis to DRDO and DGQA will be provided with regular Defence Pool accommodation/hired accommodation in their turn at par with other service officers posted in the station. Officers posted to Coast Guard HQrs on tenure basis shall be governed under the provisions of para 1(a) (ii) and 1(a) (iii) above.
- (b) (II) Officers posted on deputation to DRDO, DGQA and Coast Guard and other Departments under Ministry of Defence at Delhi and New Delhi.
- i) Deputationists who are permanently seconded shall not be allotted Regular Defence pool accommodation built out of Army Budget. However, hired Defence pool accommodation shall be allotted under the arrangements of CAO.
 - ii) Deputationists officers, who are permanently seconded to DRDO, DGQA and Coast Guard and have been allotted regular Defence pool accommodation by the CAO prior to issue of this letter will be allowed to retain that accommodation till alternative hired accommodation is provided to them by the CAO or they are posted out of the station whichever is earlier.
 - iii) Deputationists officers, who are permanently seconded to DRDO, DGQA and Coast Guard and have been allotted regular Defence Pool accommodation by the Station HQrs Delhi prior to issue of this letter will be allowed to retain that accommodation till alternative accommodation is provided to them by their Departments or they are posted out of the Station or for a maximum period of two years, whichever is earlier.
 - iv) Service officers posted on tenure basis to Coast Guards will be governed under the provisions of para 1(a) (ii) and 1(a) (iii) above. However, officers posted on tenure basis to DRDO and DGQA shall be treated at par with other regular officers posted to Defence HQrs in the matter of allotment of accommodation.
- (c) In addition to the above, the service officers proceeding on deputations to civil organisation on tenure basis including DRDO, DGQA, Coast Guard under Ministry of Defence (where they are not in receipt of Deputation Allowance) shall be entitled to:
- (a) If in occupation of regular or hired accommodation and the deputation is in the same station, the officers are to be permitted to retain, the accommodation in occupation.
 - (b) Hired accommodation only, if the deputation is to a station other than the last duty station.
- (d) Officers posted to SFF and Assam Rifles in Field Area
- Officer posted on tenure basis to a field area on deputation, such as SFF or Assam Rifles, will be permitted to exercise their option for retaining accommodation and opting for separated family accommodation as in the case of any other officers posted to a field area.
